

ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Sat 9th June 1883

THE LATE ACCIDENT

We are requested to state that the subscription list in aid of the widow of poor BURNETT, who was accidentally killed on the Pier, is still open, and donations will be thankfully received. We understand that a report has got about the town that BURNETT's life was insured for £300. Although the absurdity and falsity of such a statement are self-evident, it has been the means of affecting the subscription, and we hope that after our contradiction of the same, subscriptions will again flow in.

Researched by
Ann Barrett