MILITARY FUNERAL.---The funeral of ex-Sergt-Major James Alexander CHAPMAN, of the Black Watch, took place on Saturday with military honours. The cortege left deceased's house in George-street accompanied by a firing party from C Co. 8th Batt. Hants. Regiment and members of the Ryde detachment of the National Reserve. The service was conducted by the Rev. Noel STUBBS, and at the conclusion three volleys were fired over the grave and the "Last Post" was sounded.

Amongst those present, in addition to the family mourners, were Major ELLERY, Capt. GRIMES, and Capt. RATCLIFFE. The wreaths included one from the officers, N.C.O's, and riflemen of A. Co. I.W. Rifles.

Deceased, who passed away on the previous Tuesday at the age of 72, had many friends in the town and was generally respected.
