

ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Saturday 7th September, 1901

SUDDEN DEATH. – On Tuesday morning Mrs. Harriet CHESSELL, aged 74, died suddenly at Violet Cottage, Hope-road, St. John's the residence of her brother. Deceased, who had been residing there for two years and nine months, had been subject to fits and suffering from paralysis. She was alive at 6 a.m. on the day named, but was found dead in bed an hour later.

The Coroner did not deem an inquest necessary.

Researched & typed by
Ann Barrett
Val Minns