ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Friday 8th June 1984

Mrs. A. CHUBB.---Mrs. Amy CHUBB of Binstead Road, Ryde, died at St. Mary's Hospital, Newport, aged 76. She lived on the Island for 45 years. Born and educated at Wellington, Shropshire, she trained as a nurse at Wolverhampton and then, after a long illness, went into private nursing. On moving to the Island, she joined the Garfield Road Methodist Church, Ryde, where she helped to run the brownies and assisted in the work of the Methodist Missionary Society. She was a member of the Trefoil Guild. Her husband died in 1975, and she is survived by two children and four grandchildren.

Cremation followed a service at Garfield Methodist Church, conducted by the Rev. N. WARMAN. Mourners included Mr. and Mrs. D. J. CHUBB (son and daughter-in-law), Mr. and Mrs. A. G. DENNESS (son-in-law and daughter), Miss A. DENNESS, Miss S. DENNESS, R. CHUBB (grandchildren). Mr. W. CURETON (brother), Mrs. C. CHUM (sister), Mr. E. CHUBB (brother-in-law), Mr. J. BOOT (nephew), Mrs. B. RUSSELL (niece), and Mrs. R. DENNESS. Also represented were the Grocers' Federation, Trefoil Guild, and Garfield Road Church Women's Fellowship.

Arrangements were by H. V. TAYLOR and Sons, Ryde.

CREMATION: At the Crematorium, Station Road, Whippingham, East Cowes, IW.
