THE LATE MR. L. COLES.- The funeral of Mr. Lewis COLES, whose death was chronicled in our last issue, took place on Saturday afternoon. As was only natural a great deal of public sympathy was displayed for the friends of one so suddenly cut off in the prime of life. Most of the leading tradesmen partially closed their establishments, and the flags of the Ryde Conservative Club and the Ryde Rowing Club (deceased having been an active member of both) were placed at half mast. The coffin (which was of polished oak, with a handsome brass bar along each side, and brass plate), was conveyed on an open hearse to the Parish Church of All Saints, where the first portion of the service was performed by the Rev. CARPENTER TURNER, who also officiated at the Cemetery. The chief mourners were Mr. COLES, Mr. J. H. COLES, Mr. Arthur COLES, Mr. EDWIN COLES, Dr. Charles COLES, Mr. E. V. COLES. The following members of the staff also attended- Mr. MORFORD, Mr. VERITY, Mr. FORGE, Mr. PENNINGTON, Mr. J. DAISH. The Rowing Club was represented by Captain C. SWEETMAN, Messrs. W. SWEETMAN, J. B. PURNELL, CHIVERTON, WHITE, H. MORGAN, H. OSBORNE, M. OSBORNE, F. OSBORNE, and A. BEVIS; the Conservative Club by Messrs. Charles COX, W. C. HARVEY, C. LANGDON, J. W. LANGDON, W. WALLIS, W. H.
