Obituary
MRS. H. E. COLLIS

Affectionately known as “Mother COLLIS” to wounded soldiers in the I.W. County Hospital during the war, Mrs. Harriet Emily COLLIS, of 104 George Street, Ryde, died at the hospital on Sunday. Mrs. COLLIS had suffered failing health for six years. She was 59.

For 38 years prior to her illness she was a voluntary worker at the Hospital, working mainly on Calthorpe and Elizabeth Wards. A native of Ryde, Mrs. COLLIS was a Salvationist all her life.

She leaves a husband and daughter. The funeral takes place at the salvation Army Citadel to-day (Thursday) at 2.30.
