MRS. A. M. COLVERSON

The funeral of Mrs. Ann Maria COLVERSON, whose body was brought from Laycock, Wilts, where she died, took place at the Parish Church yesterday (Wednesday) afternoon. The Rev. C. BARKER officiated, the interment being in the same grave as her husband in the cemetery. Mrs. COLVERSON, who passed away on Friday, was aged 73 and was the widow of the late Mr. Francis COLVERSON, who died in Ryde in 1899. He owned a flourishing green-grocery and poultry business on the site of MAC FISHERIES' shop in High Street, the business being carried on by his widow until 1917. Mrs. COLVERSON had been in failing health for some considerable time, but was only confined to her bed for three weeks. She died at her daughter's residence. The mourners at the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. Wellington JELFS, of Chippenham (daughter and son-in-law); Mr. and Mrs. W. RICKARDS, of Laycock (daughter and son-in-law); Mrs. F. GODDARD, of Winchester (sister); Messrs. R. and H.

SPEDDING, of London (nephews). Among those in the church were: Mrs. T. HUDSON, of Southampton, Miss C. RUSSELL, of Ashe, Mr. T. SCOVELL, of Brighstone, Mrs. READ, of Binstead, Mrs. M. RUMSEY and Miss PAGE.

J. PERKIS & Son superintended the funeral arrangements.
