

MARRIAGE: 1936 at All Saints' Church, Ryde.
Robert F. COOKE & Geraldine Violet Boyce STAINER.

ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Saturday 12th December 1942 page 3

Death of Mrs. R. COOKE- We regret to record the death at the County Hospital yesterday (Friday) of Mrs. Geraldine COOKE, wife of Mr. R. COOKE, Island manager for Messrs. BRICKWOOD, of West-street. Deceased, who was only 32, was the younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. STAINER, of 35 Arthur-street, and a sister of Mr. J. STAINER (head master of Oakfield Boys' School). She possessed a good soprano voice and took the lead in the performance of "The country girl" by the Operatic Society. She leaves a 4-year-old son.

ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Saturday 19th December 1942 page 9.

THE LATE MRS R. COOKE

Canon MOXON officiated at the funeral service for Mrs. Geraldine COOKE, wife of Mr. R. COOKE, of West-street, in the Parish Church on Tuesday. The mourners were Mr. R. COOKE (husband), Mr. and Mrs. C. J. STAINER (parents), Mr. and Mrs. J. F., Mr. and Mrs. T., and Mr. A. STAINER (brothers and sisters-in-law), Mr. and Mrs. COOKE, Mr. H. PITMAN, and Mr. F. H. ADAMS. The interment was in the Cemetery and the beautiful flowers included those from the staffs of Messrs. BRICKWOOD's Hotel Department and of the Newport depot, and all at West Mill, Newport.

Researched & typed by
Ann Barrett
Kate MacDonell