ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Sat 23rd May 1874

DEATH OF AN OLD INHABITANT.---In the vicinity of Dover-street there has resided for many years a respectable couple named Isaac and Sarah COOPER, who in their younger days succeeded in saving enough to erect a small lodging-house, so as to gain them a humble livelihood in their declining years; under this roof they some years since celebrated their wedding jubilee. Some months ago the poor old lady had a fall and dislocated her hip, since which time she has been confined to her little cabin, anxiously watched over by her mate. On Wednesday last, however, the angel of death visited their peaceful dwelling and put an end to her sufferings, leaving the poor old man to mourn his loss. Mrs. COOPER had attained the age of 77 years.
