DEATH OF MISS E. L. COSSERAT

A very esteemed inhabitant of Ryde has passed away in the person of Miss Elizabeth L. COSSERAT, who died at her residence in Monkton-Street, on Monday last. The deceased lady and her sister were well-know in local circles, and they were among the founders of the Fine Art Society, to which at one time they often contributed beautiful art needlework, etc.

The funeral took place this (Friday) afternoon at three o'clock. The first portion of the service was held at Holy Trinity, the Vicar (the Rev. W.M. CAMERON) and the Rev. G.L. DAVEY, officiating. The chief mourners were Miss Helen COSSERAT, Lady Anne COSSERAT, Miss K. OWEN, and Mr. Percival OWEN. The hymn "Rock of Ages," was sung in the Church.

Wreaths &c., were sent by - "For Bessie, from her loving sister Helen"; the Lady Anne COSSERAT (sister-in-law), "For dear Bessie, with great love on her birthday"; Mrs. Ingles WEBB, "For dearest Bessie, with her cousin's love and sorrow"; Miss K.S. OWEN, Nurse SHAKELTON, Nurse Mary, Daisy and Lizzie, Lady and the Misses BROWN, Mrs. Alexander DAVEY, the Rev. G.L. DAVEY, Mrs. R.C. SAUNDERS, Mrs. CAMERON, Mrs. MALCOLMSON, Capt. And Mrs. Hugh Poynder MEARS, Lady AEXANDER, Mrs. Arthur DANIELS, Mrs. Jasper LIVINGSTONE, Mrs. And the Misses WADE, Miss. MEYER, Miss. MAXWELL, and Miss Sybil READY, Mr. and Mrs. F. FLETCHER, and Miss FLETCHER, Mrs. MEARES, Mr. and Mrs. W.E. RATCLIFFE, Lieut. Col. And Mrs. ENGLAND, Miss Le MARCHANT, Major and Mrs. Edward CROFT MURRAY, Mrs. M. MAYBRICK and Gladys, Mr. W. BREWSTER (America), Mrs. LEWIS and and Miss Sylvia LEEDS, Mr. and Mrs. GOBLE, etc.

The funeral arrangements were ably carried out by Messrs. COOMBES.
