

ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Saturday 14th August 1943

The Late Mr. J. J. CRABB.- The funeral service for Mr. Job Joseph CRABB, a former well known member of the old Volunteer and Town Bands, of 74 Swanmore -road, took place in St. Mary's R. C. Church on Saturday. Father A. P. LION celebrated a requiem Mass and conducted the burial office.

The mourners were Mrs. CRABB (widow), Miss CRABB (daughter), Mr. C. TRUEMAN (son-in-law, also representing Mrs. TRUEMAN, daughter), Mr. and Mrs. S. PRESSEY, Mrs. WEBB, and Mr. BATCHELOR (representing the Theatre Royal). The floral tributes included those from the Theatre Royal and the domestic staff of the County Hospital.

Mrs. CRABB and family express grateful thanks to Dr. Pickering PIK, the matron, Sister SHORTT, and the County Hospital nursing staff for their kindness, and friends for sympathy and lovely flowers.
