ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Saturday 17th May 1913

Death of Miss CRAMER .- It is with much regret that we have to record the death of Miss Margianna Harriet CRAMER, of East Mount, Dover Street, Ryde, who passed away at her residence on Saturday last. Miss CRAMER, who was greatly respected in the town, had been commandant of the Nursing Section of the Red Cross Society since its formation.

The funeral was on Tuesday afternoon, when an impressive fully choral service was held at the Holy Trinity Church, conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. J. E. EDDIS). Mr. Percy JAMES was at the organ. The remains, enclosed in a coffin of polished oak, with brass mountings, were conveyed to the cemetery in a hearse, covered with beautiful floral tributes. At the graveside the committal sentences were pronounced by the Vicar, in the presence of the mourners, who were Mrs. MONTGOMERY (niece), and Mr. MONTGOMERY, Colonel PEARSON (cousin), Mrs. THOMPSON (cousin), and Mr. THOMPSON. Dr. Spencer CHURCHILL was also present, besides three of the deceased lady's maids. Amongst the numerous floral tributes, was one beautiful token from the Red Cross Society.

The funeral arrangements were carried out by C. LANGDON.
