Death of Sir William CLIFFORD, Bart, C.B. – Much regret has been expressed at the death of Sir William CLIFFORD, Bart, C.B., of Westfield, Ryde. The deceased gentleman was the son of the late Sir Augustus CLIFFORD, for many years Usher of the Black Rod. He succeeded his father in 1877, but has been in failing health for some time. He left Ryde for Hastings, and then went to Bournemouth, where he died on Monday. Sir William was the brother of the member for Newport, but is succeeded by his brother Robert, a retired colonel in the Army. The deceased gentleman was 67 years of age.
