

Hampshire Telegraph and Sussex Chronicle Saturday 23 January 1886, Issue 5458

Funeral of Mrs COMDEN – On Thursday the remains of this much respected lady were laid in their final resting place at the cemetery. The deceased was the wife of a very old and highly respected citizen, Mr B COMDEN, sec., of Chapman House, George Street. The service was impressively conducted by the Rev John SAUNDERS, B.A. The employes of the firm sent a magnificent wreath to be placed on the coffin.

---

Researched by
Carol Strong