

OBITUARY.- Our obituary records the death of Mr. Edwin DAMP, who for 35 years had been an employee of the firm of Messrs. W. and J. WOODS, of Cross Street. The respect in which he was held was shown at the funeral, which took place on Tuesday last.

The first part of the service took place at Holy Trinity Church, where the Revs. W. M. CAMERON (Vicar) and H. BREW officiated. The deceased had been for ten years a teacher at Holy Trinity Sunday Schools, and in addition to many relatives and friends, Captain GREEN and several of the Church officials were present. The body was borne to its last resting place by the employes of Messrs. WOODS, and nearly all those who could be spared, showed their respect by attending, viz., Messrs. NOTCUTT, A WHITE, W. BRADING, W. BUDDEN, J. BUTCHER, G. DOWNER, J. FRY, J. GLADDIS, W. GODDEN, W. GRIFFIN, C. KENT, W. GOSDEN, W. MORGAN, T. MUNDELL, S. PICKNELL, J. QUELCH, A. REAK, F. SHACKLETON, W. SHACKLETON, and R. WHITE. The service at the grave was taken by the Rev. W. CAMERON. There was a number of wreaths, including one from Messrs. WOODS' workmen, another from the employes of the front shop, and the Rev. W. N. CAMERON and the Sunday School.

Researched & typed by
Ann Barrett
Kate MacDonell