

MR. W. DANIELL

Licensee of the Star Hotel, High Street, Ryde, for the past 10 years, Mr. William DANIELL died at the Royal I.W. County Hospital on Friday. A Portsmouth man, Mr. DANIELL was in business in the city as a master builder and on his retirement came to the Star Hotel. He was a member of the Isle of Wight Licensed Victuallers Society.

Mr. DANIELL leaves a widow, a son and three daughters, having lost one of his twin daughters last autumn.

The funeral took place at Ryde Parish Church on Tuesday, the Vicar (Canon A. CORY) officiating. The mourners were Lieut.-Cmdr. R. G. DANIELL, R.N. and Mrs. DANIELL (son and daughter-in-law), Mrs. G. H. BOWYER and Miss B. DANIELL (daughters), Mr. M. G. ELLIOTT (son-in-law), and Mr. J. JACKSON. Mrs. DANIELL (widow) and Mrs. ELLIOTT (daughter) were unable to attend.

Wreaths were received from the I.W. Licensed Victuallers Society; the directors of Messrs. MEW, LANGTON & Co. Ltd; the Amalgamated Society of Woodworkers; and many relatives and friends. The interment was at Ryde Cemetery.
