ODD FELLOW'S FUNERAL.---On Sunday afternoon last, about 60 brethren belonging to the Manchester Unity of the Loyal Independent Order of Odd Fellows, assembled to pay their last tribute of respect to Br. Edwin J. DASH, who passed away at the early age of 28 years. As usual on such occasions, the brethren preceded the corpse until its arrival at the Cemetery, when they formed into two separate lines, and the body and mourners having passed, they again joined in procession.

The service was performed by the Rev. T. Aston BINNS, after which he delivered a short address to the mourners and attendants, closing with prayer. At the conclusion of the ceremony, each brother drew near the grave and strewed the coffin with sprigs of thyme.
