

ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Saturday 23rd February 1895

The funeral of MR. M. DIXON, of Sutton, who for many years resided at Cleveland, St John's Park, Ryde, took place on Wednesday last. The body was enclosed in an elm shell, with outer cover of polished elm, and electro-plated furniture, and was conveyed from Sutton direct to the Congregational Church, Ryde, where the service was conducted by the Rev. J.R. CHAMBERLAIN, of Brading, and the Rev JONES, of Sutton. Many friends attended at the church, and afterwards proceeded to the Cemetery, where the remains were laid to rest with the wife of deceased, who was buried there a few years ago.

The whole of the funeral arrangements were carried out, both at Sutton and Ryde, by Mr J.A. PURNELL, of 7 and 8, High Street, Ryde,

Researched & typed by
Ann Barrett
Margaret Truckel