ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Sat 11th June 1938

Death of Mr. J. H. EAMES.---A well known and much esteemed lifelong resident of the borough passed away on Friday in the person of Mr. James Henry EAMES, aged 78, of Lynton, Well-street, who until his retirement about eight years ago had worked as a jobbing gardener. Mr. EAMES was taken suddenly ill on Tuesday week and was removed to the Royal I.W. County Hospital, where an operation was performed, but at his advanced age it failed to save his life, and he passed away at the hospital.

He was one of the oldest members of the Social Club, and in his early days served in the local company of the I.W. Volunteers. He leaves a widow, who is an invalid, and a family of seven sons (five of whom served in the Great War) and one daughter (Mrs. H. STREET) in Australia, to mourn his passing.

The funeral took place on Tuesday, a service at All Saints' Church being conducted by the Vicar (Canon R. S. MOXON). Mr. E. G. WELSH (organist) accompanied the hymn "Abide with me" and played "O rest in the Lord." The chief mourners were Messrs. J. B., Horace, W. J., H. V., A., C., and S. EAMES (sons), and Messrs. R. and H. EAMES (brothers), and a number of friends also attended. The interment was at the Parish Cemetery, and there were about 40 floral tributes, including one from the members of the Social Club.

---Mrs. EAMES and the family tender sincere thanks to Dr. LIESCHING and the staff of the County Hospital for their devoted attention, and to all sending messages of sympathy and floral tributes. Will those concerned please accept this acknowledgment.
