

ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thursday 16th February 1939

Death Notice:

FOSTER.- Feb 8, at 5, Rink Road, Ryde. Mrs. M. FOSTER, aged 88.

ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thursday 16th February 1939

MRS M. FOSTER

A few days before her seventieth birthday, Mrs. Minna FOSTER died at her home, 5 Rink Road, Ryde, on February 8th.

A Ventnor women, Mrs. FOSTER married a Newport man, William George FOSTER, nearly 43 years ago, and for about forty years they have lived in Ryde where Mr. FOSTER is an employee of the Corporation.

For seven years Mrs. FOSTER had been an invalid but in spite of this she was a popular member of the Congregational Women's Guild and other women's societies in which she took an interest.

During the past six months she had been confined to her bed and passed away on Wednesday evening.

The funeral was at the Congregational Church, George Street on Monday, the Rev. W. R. LLOYD officiating.

Amongst the mourners were Mr. W. G. FOSTER (widower), Mr. G. GALLOP and Mr. J. GALLOP (brothers), Mrs. ASH (niece), Mrs FOSTER, Newport (sister-in-law) and Miss B. FOSTER (niece), Mrs. BARNES and Mrs. BALL (friends).

Researched & typed by
Ann Barrett
David Harris
Tracy Welstead