ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thursday 20th February 1930

FUNERAL OF MRS. GAGE

The funeral of Mrs. Sarah Jane GAGE, 48 Castle Street, who died on Tuesday after a long illness at the age of 78, took place at Binstead on Thursday. Mrs. GAGE was the wife of Mr. Benjamin GAGE, who was for many years in business in the High Street as a grocer and was well known and esteemed in the town. The officiating clergyman was the rector, the Rev. C. S. STOOKS. The mourners were Mr. B. GAGE (husband), Miss M. GAGE (daughter), Mr. and Mrs. H. GAGE (son and daughter-in-law), Mr. and Mrs. P. W. WHYMAN (son-in-law and daughter), and Mr. G. LIPSCOMBE (son-in-law). There were a number of floral tokens.

Messrs. COOMBES were undertakers.

NB: We note a discrepancy on the marriage, Sarah was listed with a 2nd name of "Eliza" However, all other records including birth registration, state her 2nd name as "Jane."
