

1891 CENSUS: RG12/891. folio 106. page 5.
Address: Hazelwood, Ashey-road, Ryde, Haylands, IW.

William JACOBS. Head. M. 65. Secretary of Young Mens House. Milbourne, Dorsetshire.
Ellen JACOBS. Wife. M. 69. Matron. Redwick, Gloucestershire.
Ellen P. JACOBS. Dau. S. 34. Matron's Assistant. Bristol, Gloucestershire.
Edgar H. TOWLER. Assistant. S. 17. Assistant Secretary. St. Helens, IW.
Elizabeth GALE. Servant. S. 26. Housemaid Domestic. Ryde, IW.
(plus 13 Boarders & 8 other servants)

1901 CENSUS: RG13/1025. folio 57. page 13.
Address: 44 Albert-street, Ryde, IW.

Sophia GALE. Head. S. 49. Dress Maker. Ryde, IW.
Elizabeth GALE. Sister. S. 36. Housemaid (Domestic). Ryde, IW.

1927 KELLY's DIRECTORY of Hampshire & Isle of Wight - page 730
GALE Miss, 14 Winton-street, Ryde, IW.

ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thursday 8th June 1933

OBITUARY
MISS E. GALE

It is with regret we report the death of Miss Elizabeth GALE (69) of 14 Winton Street, who died on Thursday morning. The daughter of the late Mr. William GALE, deceased had lived in Ryde all her life. She had been in delicate health for a long time, but only took to her bed a fortnight ago.

Deceased had been a member of the Baptist Church for more than 30 years.

The funeral took place on Saturday, the Rev. H. G. DRAKE officiating. The mourners were Miss SIBLEY (cousin), Mr. and Mrs. Sydney CANTERBURY (nephew and niece), and Miss BREWER (friend).

Wreaths were received as follows: "In loving memory," from Ellen, Mother and Jim, "The Lord Knoweth;" "With united love to our dear one, whom God has lent for a little while, until he needed her again," Edie and Sydney; "With deep sympathy," from Alfred and Kate; "With deepest sympathy," from all at 88, High Street, Cowes; With deepest sympathy," from the Pastor, Officers and Members of the Baptist Church; "With deepest sympathy," from Mrs. GUTRIDGE and family.
