ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Sat 27th Sept 1913

DEATH OF MR. GEYDEN

We regret to record the death of Mr. George GEYDEN, of Pier-street, which occurred on Firday last. The deceased was for some 20 odd years employed by Messrs. MORGAN, tailors, of Union-street, and was highly esteemed and respected in the borough.

At the funeral on Tuesday his fellow employees and other members of the trade in the town, followed with the mourners. A service was conducted at the church in the Cemetery by the Rev. C. L. BLAKE, who also conducted the service at the graveside. The deceased was interred in a coffin of polished oak, bearing the inscription "George GEYDEN, died September 19th, 1913, aged 69."

Amongst the many floral tributes was a fine wreath from the members of the Ryde Liberal Club, of which the deceased was a popular member.
