

MARRIAGE: 17th May 1859 at All Saints' Church, Newchurch, IW.
John GLADDIS. Full/age. Bachelor. (father: James GLADDIS)
Ann ARNOLD. 19. Spinster. (father: William ARNOLD)

1891 CENSUS: RG12/891. folio 115. page 23.
Address: 1 Cams Cottages, Upton-road, Asheys, Ryde, IW.

John GLADDIS. Head. M. 57. General Labourer. Arreton, IW.
Ann GLADDIS. Wife. M. 50. Brading, IW.
Mary SIMONDS. Visitor. M. 56. Brading, IW.

1901 CENSUS: RG13/1023. folio 35. page 26.
Address: 26 Upton-road, Asheys, Ryde, IW.

John GLADDIS. Head. M. 67. Agric Labourer. Haven Street, IW.
Ann GLADDIS. Wife. M. 60. Sandown, IW.

In 1911 Ann was living at Cams Cottage, Upton-road, Haylands, with her husband. He was listed as a Naval Pensioner RN.

ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thursday 20th May 1926 Page 2

Death Notice:-

GLADDIS.- May 16th, at Cams Cottage, Upton Road, Haylands, Ann, widow of the late Mr John GLADDIS, aged 84.

ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thursday 20th May 1926 Page 2

OCTOGENARIAN'S DEATH

The death occurred early on Sunday morning at Cams Cottage, Upton Road, Haylands, of Mrs Ann GLADDIS, widow of the late Mr John GLADDIS, Crimean veteran. The deceased lady belonged to an old Island family her grandfather having fought in the Battle of Waterloo, and brought a French wife with him on his return from the war. Mrs GLADDIS was well-known in the Havenstreet district, but spent the last 40 years in Haylands. She had been bed ridden for some considerable time, and passed away after much suffering at the age of 84.
