RYDE OCTOGENARIAN

A member of a well-known Cowes family, Mr. Wilfred John GLADWIN died at his home, 29 Surrey-Street, Ryde, on Monday, after nearly six months illness. He was 87.

A native of Cowes, where he was employed as a tailor by Messrs. John MORGAN & Sons for many years, he came to Ryde to live nearly half a century ago, and entered the employ of Messrs. OSBORNE'S, of Union-Street. He retired in 1943, 10 years after the death of his wife. A keen walker, he had enjoyed excellent health until fairly recently. He leaves one son. The funeral takes place tomorrow (Friday) at St. Mary's R.C. Church at 9.30.a.m
