OBITUARY

Much sympathy has been expressed for Mrs. GLASGOW, (of Althorp House), who lost her daughter Miss Ellen Violet GLASGOW, after a short illness, on Saturday last. The funeral took place on Tuesday morning. The coffin was borne on an open hearse to the Parish Church where a part of the burial service was impressively read by the Rev. W.E. YOUNGMAN, after which the funeral cortege wended its way to the Cemetery. The coffin was of English oak with massive silver fittings. The breastplate bore the following inscription: Ellen Violet Glasgow, died March 8th, 1890, aged 18 years.”

The funeral arrangements were entrusted to Messrs. COOMBES, of Cross-Street, Ryde.

(Also in the I.W. County Press Saturday 15th March 1890 page 8 no further information)
