FLORIST'S DEATH

Mr. Robert James GOBLE, of 3 Rink-road, died at his home on Wednesday in his 79th year. A native of Bicester, Oxfordshire, he came to Ryde in 1908 to assist his brother Mr. Edward C. GOBLE in his business as a florist and nurseryman. Mr. GOBLE was keenly interested in horticulture, and frequently acted as judge at local Women's Institute exhibitions. A staunch churchman, he was a founder of the old Church of England Men's Society in the town, and loyally served St. John's Church, being a sidesman and past member of the Parochial Church Council. He served with the I.W. Volunteers during the first world war. He leaves a widow and two sons.
