DEATH AND FUNERAL OF MRS. GODFREY

We regret to record the death of the wife of Mr. George GODFREY, of Arlington, Pellhurst-road, Ryde, which occurred last week after a brief illness.

The funeral took place on Tuesday afternoon in the presence of a large number of sympathising friends. The first part of the funeral service was held at the Wesleyan Chapel, Garfield-road, which was filled with those who had known and held in high respect the deceased lady. The Rev. F. J. SMITH, Superintendent of the Circuit, and other Circuit Ministers officiated and the Rev. BRACKENBURY gave an appropriate and feeling address. The chief mourners included the husband, brothers, and nephews.

Splendid floral wreaths and crosses were sent in profusion as a memento of the sorrowing occasion. The funeral arrangements were carried out by Messrs. JAMES and Son, of Binstead. The coffin was of polished oak with brass furniture, and the inscription recorded that deceased was in her 70th year.
