DEATH OF DR. GREENING

The death of Dr. Frederick Joseph GREENING, a well-known and greatly respected medical practioner of the town, occurred at his residence, Melville House, Melville-street, on Monday evening.

Dr. GREENING, who had reached the advanced age of 75, was for some four or five years House Surgeon at the Royal I.W. County Hospital, since when, for some 40 years he had practiced in Ryde. He had suffered from indifferent health for several years, but became worse about a month ago. The deceased was unmarried.

The funeral took place this (Friday) afternoon, the first part of the service being held at Holy Trinity Church, the Vicar (the Rev. J. E. EDDIS, M.A.) officiating.

DEATH OF DR. GREENING

It is with the deepest regret that we record the death of Dr. Frederick Joseph GREENING, M.R.C.S., which occurred at his residence, Melville House, Melville-street, on Monday.

The deceased gentleman who was in his 75th year, came to reside at Ryde a great many years since. He was formerly house surgeon at the County Hospital, then known as the Isle of Wight Infirmary. Mr. GREENING afterwards acquired a practice, which however, he had to relinquish some time ago owing to failing health. He took no prominent part in the affairs of the town, although he was well-known professionally. He was universally respected and very greatly liked by a large circle of friends, who sincerely mourn the loss of a genial, kind-hearted gentleman.

The funeral took place yesterday (Friday) afternoon, the first part of the obsequies being held at Holy Trinity Church, the Vicar (the Rev. J. E. EDDIS, R.D.) officiating. As the cortege left the church the organist (Mr. O. FEBEN) played Mendelssohn's "O rest in the Lord."

In addition to the family mourners, there were also present Dr. Spencer CHURCHILL, Dr. F. J. WADHAM, Dr. D. J. DAVIES, Dr. WARD, Mr. W. BLAKELEY, Mr. J. E. BREBNER, and Mr. HAPGOOD.
