

Retired Café Owner. - The funeral took place on Monday of Miss Daisy Grace GROVER, aged 84, of Oakleigh, Asheby Road, who died at St. Mary's Hospital, Newport, on Thursday week. She was born at Peckham, London, and came here with a sister shortly after the last war. For 12 years the sisters were in business as proprietresses of the Wight Café, Station Street. Miss GROVER was an active member of the local group of Friends of the Deaf. For many years she attended St. Michael's Church, Swanmore, where the coffin was received on Sunday evening by the Rev. M.O.H. CATON (vicar) and the Rev. C.P. BRYAN. The vicar officiated at the funeral service. The mourners were Miss I. GROVER and Mrs. O. GOODWIN (sisters), Miss E. OAKLEY and Mrs. E. SHACKLETON. Interment was at Binstead Cemetery.

Messrs. H.V. TAYLOR and Son made the arrangements.
