DEATH OF MRS. HACKETT

We regret to announce the death, which occurred at 7 Swanmore-Road, Ryde, on Saturday, Sept. 15th, of Mrs. HACKETT, wife of Mr. Frederick HACKETT, a lady who will be missed by many especially by a little circle of friends who regarded her with affection. Although born in Southsea she spent many years of her young life in Ryde and Seaview, being related to the family of DAWSONS at the latter place. She was for some years a pupil of the late Miss GILES at or near the house in which she died, and was a close and personal friend of the late Miss CHICK of Milligan-Road, who was a school fellow.

Mrs. HACKETT returned to Ryde with her husband consequent upon his retirement from the army in 1919.

Much sympathy is felt for her husband and family, two daughters of whom one is in America, and one in Australia, and her son who was present with his father at her death, in their sad bereavement.
