

1871 CENSUS: RG10/1790. folio 85. page 33.

Address: 3 Coastguard Station, Marine Parade, Great Yarmouth, Norfolk.

Bartholomew HALLARAN. Head. Mar. 34. Coastguardsman. Cork, Ireland.

Julia HALLARAN. Wife. Mar. 27. Cork, Ireland.

Thomas HALLARAN. Son. 5. Pembrokeshire, S Wales.

Mary HALLARAN. Dau. 3. Cork, Ireland.

Eliza HALLARAN. Dau. 1. Yarmouth, Norfolk.

1901 CENSUS: RG13/5328. folio 134. page 3.

Address: "Orlando" Royal Navy Vessel

Thomas HALLORAN. S. 34. Petty Officer 1st class. Pembroke, Wales.

(Plus other crew members)

In 1911 Thomas was living at 141 Laburnam Grove, North End, Portsmouth, with his parents Bartholomew & Julia, sister Elizabeth, and brother John. Thomas and his father were both Royal Navy Pensioners and his brother was a Ship's Steward RN. Thomas's birthplace was given as Pembroke Dock.

ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Sat 28th November 1942

Pensioner's Sudden Death.---Thomas HALLORAN, aged 76, a Naval pensioner, was on Wednesday, found dead at his home, 81 Upton-road, where he had lived alone. The discovery was made by Mr. Elizabeth YOUNG, a next-door neighbour, who had been in the habit of taking his food to him. She had gone to the house with his breakfast. Dr. FIRMIN-EDWARDS was summoned, but could only pronounce life extinct. Deceased was a bachelor.
