DEATH OF AN OLD RYDER

We have to regret the loss of another "old Ryder," by the death of Mr. George HARVEY during the past week. The deceased had reached the ripe age of 77. After having spent upwards of 50 years in the pilotage service, he retired, and has been living at Sandown for about 10 years. This year, however, he returned to his native place, and his hale and hearty appearance led his friends to hope he would have enjoyed a longer period of rest than has been permitted. He had an excellent memory, and could detail experiences of "old Ryde," which the present generation could hardly believe. He was a quiet, unassuming man, but amongst his old shipmates he was heartily respected and liked.
