

Death Notice:-

HEWARD.- On November 1st, Sarah HEWARD, of 9, St. John's Road, aged 80.

---

OBITUARY
MRS. S. HEWARD

Regret will be felt at the passing of Mrs. Sarah HEWARD, of 9 St. John's Road, who died on Tuesday at the age of 80. Deceased was the widow of Mr. W. HEWARD, who was a well-known fishmonger in the High Street. She came of an old Ryde family and had lately been residing with her cousin, Mr. C. BRADING.

The funeral takes place this (Thursday) afternoon at All Saints' at 2.30pm.

---

MRS. S. HEWARD

The funeral of the late Mrs. Sarah HEWARD took place at All Saints' on Thursday when the Rev. A. W. H. HARLOW (assistant Priest) officiated. The interment followed in the Cemetery. The mourners were: Florrie HEWARD (grand-daughter), Mr. George HEWARD (brother-in-law), Mrs. HETHRINGTON, of London (sister-in-law), Mrs. M. SALTER, of Portsmouth (sister-in-law), Mrs. W. J. TAYLOR, of Totland (niece), Messrs. Cecil and Stanley BRADING (nephews), Mr. KNIGHT and Miss I. KNIGHT, of Southampton, Mr. W. J. TAYLOR, Mrs. Stanley BRADING, Mr. and Mrs. George BRADING, Mr. Arthur BRADING, Mr. Edwin LOADER (Exor).

There was a large number of floral tributes.

Mr. H. V. TAYLOR carried out the arrangements.

---