

1871 CENSUS: RG10/1165. folio 14. page 20.

Address: Rectory, Binstead, IW

Philip HEWETT. Head. Mar. 71. Rector of Binstead. Dublin, Ireland.

Anne HEWETT. Wife. Mar. 64. Sussex.

Edith HEWETT. Dau. Unm. 38. Whippingham, IW.

Mary HEWETT. Dau. Unm. 35. Binstead, IW.

Mary HAWKINS. Serv. W. 66. Housemaid. Nursling, Hants.

Harriett JOLLIFFE. Serv. Unm. 43. Cook. Carisbrooke, IW.

Fanny GRIMES. Serv. Unm. 28. Parlourmaid. St. Helens, IW.

1881 CENSUS: RG11/1178. folio 41. page 34.

Address: St. Ann's House, Pelham Fields, Ryde, IW.

Anne HEWETT. Head. W. 72. Funtington, Sussex.

Edith HEWETT. Dau. Unm. 48. Whippingham, Hants.

Mary HEWETT. Dau. Unm. 45. Binstead, Hants.

Marianne RIDDETT. Serv. Unm. 50. Domestic Serv Cook. Northwood, Hants.

Emma WARER. Serv. Unm. 25. Domestic Serv. Parlourmaid. Pennington, Hants.

Ellen LEWIS. Serv. Unm. 22. Domestic Serv Housemaid. Lymington, Hants.

ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Sat 3rd December 1898

THE LATE MRS. HEWETT.---The funeral of the late Mrs. Anne HEWETT, of St. Anne's, Pelham, widow of the late Rev. Philip HEWETT, many years rector of Binstead, and mother of Lieut-Colonel HEWETT, who is so well-known amongst us, took place on Saturday last, at mid-day, in Binstead Cemetery. The coffin was of polished oak, with handsome brass and copper fittings, and engraved breast plate. It was conveyed from the house to Binstead on an open car, which was followed by four carriages and pairs, containing the relatives and nurses, and Lady Cochrane sent her carriage. The service was taken by the Rev. R. R. COUSENS, B.A., incumbent of St. James's, Ryde, and a large number of the oldest inhabitants attended. Amongst others we noticed: Thomas COCHRANE, Esq., Deputy-Governor of the Island, Rev. S. K. BORTON, the present rector of Binstead, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas DASHWOOD.

There were no flowers, by deceased's special desire, but the grave was beautifully lined with bay.

Mr. J. A. PURNELL, of 7 and 8 High-street, Ryde, carried out all the arrangements in a most satisfactory manner.
