ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thursday 19th July 1951

MR. T. C. HILL

The death took place on Sunday, after an illness of two years, of Mr. Thomas Charles HILL, of Somerset Villa, Somerset-Road, Elmfield, at the age of sixty four. Mr. HILL was a Londoner who came here to live with his family 15 years ago. He was employed for 31 years with the old London, Midland and Scottish Railway as a dining-car attendant prior to his removal to Ryde and more recently was employed as head-waiter at the Royal York Hotel, Ryde, retiring in 1949 owing to ill-health. He was well-known and popular in the district . Surviving him are a widow and two daughters.

The funeral service was held yesterday (Wednesday) at St. John's Church, the Rev. P.L. VAUGHAN officiating, followed by interment at Ryde Cemetery.
