

DEATH OF LADY HORNBY

Much sympathy is felt for Admiral Sir Windham HORNBY, K.C.B. (who for over a year has resided in Ryde), on the loss of his wife, Lady HORNBY, who died on Saturday last, at their residence, Southlands.

The funeral took place on Wednesday afternoon, and the great number of beautiful wreaths that covered the coffin, testified to the esteem in which the deceased lady was held. The coffin was of pannelled and polished oak, with heavy brass mountings. It was conveyed to the Cemetery in an open hearse, and followed by six mourning carriages and pairs.

The chief mourners were Admiral Sir Windham HORNBY, K.C.B., Mr. LACEY (son-in-law), Captain PATTERSON (son), Mr. Ernest THORNTON, Admiral Sir Geoffrey HORNBY, G.C.B., Captain BRUCE, R.N., Mr. George STAPLETON, Captain RUSS, Admiral RAWSON, Mr. J. Glynn OGLANDER, Captain FORSYTH, and the servants of the house.

Amongst those who attended at the cemetery were Mrs. FETHERSTONHAUGH, General Sir Samuel BROWNE, V.C., Sir William LEVINGE, Bart., Captain BYNG, Captain BOGER, R.N., Surgeon General ROSS, Mr. E. RICH. Carriages were sent by General the Hon. Somerset J. G. CALTHORPE, Mr. Glynn OGLANDER, Captain FORSYTH, and Mrs. TURNER. The Vicar (Rev. J. SHEARME, M.A.) officiated, and was assisted by Rev. H. EWBANK.

Wreaths and crosses of exceptional beauty were sent by Mr. and Mrs. LACEY, Miss PATTERSON (grand-daughter), Miss Gussie HORNBY, Lady Emma TOLBERT, Captain and Mrs. BRUCE, General Sir Samuel BROWNE, V.C. and Lady BROWN, Lady DALY, Mr. and Mrs. John Glynn OGLANDER, Colonel and Mrs. FETHERSTONHAUGH, Captain and Mrs. FORSYTH, Mrs. BRETT, Mr. and Mrs. T. F. PERROTT, Mr. and Mrs. PITT TAYLOR, Mrs. SAYMOUR, Mrs. HOWARD, Mrs. and Miss PILKINGTON, Miss PHILLIPS, Mrs. and Miss LIVINGSTONE, Mrs. STEPHENSON, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. HATHWAY, Mr. and Mrs. Rochford BOYCE, Mrs. GAUSSEN, Mrs. Cole HAMILTON, Mr. G. STAPLETON, the servants, &c.

The funeral arrangements were entrusted to Messrs. J. PURNELL.
