Sad death of a Ryde Man

The funeral took place on Thursday of Mr Wm. John HUMBY, aged 44, who was assistant to Mr Councillor RUSSELL, butcher, High-street. Deceased was well-known and respected. He died at the County Hospital, after an operation. Many beautiful wreaths were sent, covering the coffin, which was borne to the graveside by a number of journeymen butchers. Mr HILLIER, his former employer, and Mr RUSSELL were present.

NB: We note the discrepancy in the names (William John) in the above newspaper reports, and the actual names (Frederick William) of Mr. Humby.
