FUNERAL OF MR. MARK W. HUNTER. J.P., Of RYDE

We regret to record the death of Mr. Mark W. HUNTER, J.P., which took place at his residence on Monday at the age of 65. Deceased, who was a barrister-at-law, but did not practise, was one of the senior justices of the borough. He was most charitably disposed and took a great interest in such beneficent institutions as the I.W. Infirmary, the Ryde Relief Society, and for very many years was honorary treasurer of the local branch of the S.P.G. He was also a warm supporter of all the organisations in connection with All Saints' Church.

The funeral took place at the Ryde Cemetery yesterday afternoon. The first part of the service was held at All Saints' Church and was chorally rendered. The Vicar of Ryde (the Rev. J. SHEARME) officiated assisted by the Rev. W.H.E. WELBY, the other clergy present being the Revs, S.H. WOODIN and C.L. BLAKE. The body, which was enclosed in a polished oak coffin, was wheeled on a bier. On the top were two lovely floral crosses.

The mourners were Mrs. M.H. HUNTER (widow), Mr. M.O. HUNTER (son), Miss HUNTER (daughter), the Rev. Robert B. OLIVER, the Rev. Canon A.G. HUNTER, the Rev, Campbell LOCK, Miss D. and Miss A. OLIVER, Mr. H.M. SLADEN, Mr. L. MENZIES, R.N., and Capt. Sir. E. GROGAN, Bart., Rifle Brigade. Mr. John HUNTER and Mr. Robert Lewis HUNTER were unavoidably absent. Among those present in the church were the Revs E. SUMMERS, W.M. CAMERON, and C. RHODES HALL, Col. LAYARD, Col. BLUNT, Gen. ROOKE, Capt. And Mrs. GREEN, Capt. HARRINGTON, Capt. CODDINGTON, the Rev. Canon PHILLIPS, Major and Mrs. CROFT, MURREY, Mr. T. DASHWOOD, J.P., Mr. W. Hammond RIDDETT, J.P., Mr. E. Rowland CORRIE, J.P., Mr. John FARDELL, Miss HEASLOP, Dr. BANKS, Mr. J.N. HATHAWAY, Miss MURREY, Miss MENZIES, Dr. KENNEDY, Mr. W. WADE, Mr. H. STONE, Mr. Arthur WOODS, Mrs. SHEARME, Mrs. HANBURY, the Misses FULLAGAR, WRIGHT, B. DASHWOOD, and FREER, Messrs. H. LONG, CHEEK, DELLEANY, and Supt. HINKS.

Besides Psalm 39, the hymns "The King of love my shepherd is" and "Peace perfect peace," were sung and Mr. MANDER played BEETHOVEN'S "Funeral March" before the body was removed from the church.

There were 10 carriages in the cortege. Mr. G.R. BRIGSTOCKE was also present at the Cemetery. The grave was lined with evergreens and white flowers. The following sent flowers: Mr. HUNTER, Mr. and Miss HUNTER, Nurse FERRIS, the servants at Pellhurst, Mrs. R.H. HUNTER and Miss HUNTER, Miss J. KELLY, Capt. And Mrs. F. PRYER, the Rev. R.B. And Mrs. OLIVER, the Rev. CAMPBELL and Mrs. LOCK, Mr. and Mrs. John MOBERLY, Col. Walter A. HANKEY and Miss HANKEY, Miss E. and H. ABSOLOM, Mr. and Mrs. H.M. SLADEN, Mr. F.D. and Miss SLADEN, Miss MENZIES and Dr. ATKEY, Lady GROGAN and the Misses GROGAN, Mrs. J.S. DALLAS, Miss A.N. MENZIES, Mr. and Mrs. R.L. KER, Gen. And Mrs. H. LOCK and the Misses LOCK, Mrs. WORSELY, Mrs. HEWETT, Capt. and Mrs. F. GREEN, Col. and Miss HEASLOP, Miss CRAMER, Mrs. DAVEY and the Rev. G.L. DAVEY, Mrs. Aretas COLLINS, Mr. and Mrs. J.N. HATHAWAY, Mrs. TATTNALL and the Misses TATTNALL, Miss FREER, the Rev. A.J. and Mrs. WADE, Mrs. W. Jarrett LEWIS, Miss LEWIS and Miss LANPHIER, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm SHUTTE, Capt. And Mrs. DOBIE, and Sir Edward GROGAN.

Mr. C. LANGDON carried out the arrangements most admirably.
