

ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Sat 4th January 1902

Mr. Mark William HUNTER, J.P., of Pellhurst, Ryde, who died on November 25, leaving personal estate of the net value of £32,015.8s.7d., appointed as his executrix and executors his widow, Mrs. Elizabeth Hannah HUNTER, his son Mr. Mark Oliver HUNTER, and Mr. Robert Lewin HUNTER, of 9 New-square, solicitor. The testator bequeathed to his wife £1000, his household effects, horses and carriages, and to his daughter Elizabeth Rachel Annie and his son Mark Oliver during the lifetime of their mother £200 a year each, and he left the residue of his property in trust, to pay the income thereof to Mrs. HUNTER, and subject to her interest as to his real estate for his said son absolutely, and as to his personal estate in equal shares between his son and his daughter.

---

Researched by
Ann Barrett