

MARRIAGE: 1895 at Congregational Chapel, Leeds-street, Sandown
George John INGRAM & Anna Womack HOLDEN (nee RASHLEY)

1901 CENSUS: RG13/1025. folio 41. page 20.
Address: 1 Enmore Villa, Park-road, Ryde, IW.

George INGRAM. Head. M. 40. Plumber & Turncock. Ryde, IW.
Annie INGRAM. Wife. M. 44. Farnham, Hants.
George HOLDEN. Son-in-law. S. 18. Draper's Assistant. Godalming, Surrey.
Harold INGRAM. Son. 4mths. Ryde, IW.

In 1911 Anna was living at 1 Enmore Villa, Park-road, Ryde, with her husband George and young son Harold. Her husband was listed as a Plumber.

1933 REGISTER OF ELECTORS - 10 Park-road, Ryde
INGRAM Anna Womack

ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Sat 10th February 1940

This week's obituary.---Another esteemed resident, one of the oldest members of the local Habitation of the Primrose League and Conservative Association passed away on Monday in the person of Mrs. Anna Womack INGRAM, of Enmore Villa, Park-road. She was 80 and had resided here since 1888. Her first husband was the late Mr. George Butler HOLDEN, of Godalming, and she married secondly Mr. George John INGRAM, who died in 1911. For many years he was water inspector here and second officer of the Fire Brigade.

The funeral was at Holy Trinity Church on Thursday and the Rev. S. J. CORNISH officiated. The mourners were Mr. G. P. HOLDEN, of Chesterfield, and Mr. H. G. INGRAM, of Gloucester (sons).

Researched by
Ann Barrett