ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thursday 8th April 1897

SUDDEN DEATH OF A RYDE TRADESMAN.

We regret to record the death of Mr. A. JAMES, proprietor of the Salisbury Restaurant, Union-street, Ryde. He had been in ill-health for some time, but his friends did not apprehend there was anything very serious the matter. He got up from his bed on Monday morning, and was walking across to the sofa in the same room, when he suddenly fell down and expired immediately. We deeply sympathise with Mrs. JAMES and the family in their sad and sudden bereavement. The deceased was a member of the Foresters, court in Ryde, and also a member of the Buffaloes. He was in his 56th year.
