ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Saturday 25th February 1939

Death of Mr. M. JAMES- The death took place rather suddenly on Monday at the County Hospital of Mr. Maurice JAMES, of 71 Swanmore-road. Mr. JAMES, who was in his 88th year, was out shopping as recently as Friday, and paid a visit to his doctor, who ordered him to hospital to undergo an operation. A son of Mr. Henry JAMES, of Havenstreet, he spent half his life fruit farming in Australia. Thirty years ago his wife died a few weeks after landing in England for a holiday. Two years later Mr. JAMES returned and married his second wife, a Miss POOLE, of Brighton, who died four years ago, since when Mr. JAMES has been living next door to his brother, Mr. Oliver JAMES. Deceased, who was an ardent Wesleyan and a Rechabite, leaves two sons in Australia: the third child, a daughter, predeceased her father.

The funeral took place yesterday (Friday). A service was held in the Garfield-road Methodist Church. conducted by the Rev. A. G. LLOYD. The mourners were Mr. Oliver JAMES (brother), Mr. A. H. JAMES (nephew), Mrs. BUCKETT, of Southampton, Mrs. COLLIER, of Newport, and Mrs. E. BARTON, of Cowes (nieces), and Mr. E. BARTON. There were also present Mr. A. W. NICHOLS, Mrs. C. BARNETT, Mr. W. T. HEWITT, Mrs. VINE, and Mr. F. C. W. WATTS. Mr. A. Carey HOOD (organist) played voluntaries and deceased's favourite hymns, "Rock of Ages" and "Forever with the Lord" were sung. Mr. LLOYD said the deceased was a man of prayer to a very unusual degree. The Bible was his constant companion. He was one of the oldest members of that church. Some beautiful flowers were received.

Mr. H. JAMES, of Binstead, was the undertaker.
