AWARD FOR EX-POSTMAN

Thirty-four years meritorious service with the G.P.O. has been recognised by the award of the Imperial Service Medal to Mr. William Alfred JAMES, of 24 Prince-street, who retired recently from his duties as a postman at the Head Post Office. Mr. JAMES joined the staff after being disabled in the first world war, and ill-health occasioned his retirement. The medal was presented to him at his home on Tuesday by the Head Postmaster, Mr. G. P. CRABB, who congratulated him on the award and expressed best wishes for a speedy recovery to good health.
