

Bellringer's Death. - The death took place on Saturday at the Northwood Hospital, Middlesex, of Mr. Henry JENNINGS, of 1 Argyll-place, aged 74. Deceased was for many years employed at the Telephone Exchange. An old choir-boy of All Saints', he later became a fine change ringer, and did much ringing on the mainland. He was a member of the Winchester and Portsmouth Diocesan Guild of Bellringers, attached to the I.W. district.

The funeral service on Thursday at All Saints' Church was conducted by the Rev. F.H. ROLPH. The mourners were Mrs. W. HERBERT (daughter), Mr. W. JENNINGS (brother), Messrs. W. HERBERT and R. GALE (sons-in-law), Mr. L. JENNINGS, (nephew), and Mrs. HARDY (niece). Mrs. R. GALE (daughter) and Mrs. F. BAKER, of Ventnor (sister), were unable to be present, owing to illness. The I.W. District of Bellringers was represented by Messrs. W. SCOTT (Newport), H. PHILLIPS (Godshill), and A. and P. LONG and B.J. SNOW. Dr. WILLIAMSON (president) and Mr. W. UPTON were unable to attend.
