ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Saturday 30th December 1937 Page 8

Death of Mrs JENNINGS.- The death occurred rather suddenly on Boxing Day at 1 Argyll-place of Mrs. Fanny JENNINGS, wife of Mr. H. JENNINGS, a retired Post Office employee. She was taken ill while engaged in domestic duties on Christmas-eve. The deceased was 76 years of age, a native of Whitwell, and a sister-in-law of the late Ald. Fred BAKER, of Ventnor. A member of the Parish Church, she was a regular attendant at the Welby Institute Club. Sympathy is felt with her husband in the sudden termination of 46 years of happy married life.

The funeral was at the Parish Church yesterday (Friday). The mourners were Mr. H. JENNINGS (husband), Mr. and Mrs. W. HERBERT, and Mr. and Mrs. R. GALE (sons-in-law and daughters), Mr. W. JENNINGS, Newport (brother-in-law), Mrs. Fred BAKER (sister-in-law), Mr. and Mrs. S. MAY (nephew and niece), Miss PHYLLIS HERBERT (grand-daughter), Mr. W. BURROUGHS, and Miss TEWKESBURY. The interment was at the cemetery and choice flowers were received.
