ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Sat 9th Sept 1950

BINSTEAD
DEATH OF MRS. P. S. JENSEN

The death occurred at the County Hospital on Saturday of Mrs. Jane Nicholson JENSEN, aged 70, wife of Mr. P. S. JENSEN, of 16 Kings-road. Mrs. JENSEN was a daughter of the late Principal Officer Alfred BROWN, formerly of Parkhurst Prison staff, and will be remembered in her younger days as a member of the Carisbrooke Church choir.

Much of her life had been spent away from the Island, principally at Eltham and at Blackheath, where she was a keen church worker. On her husband's retirement from his position as a tester at Woolwich Arsenal about five years ago, they came here to live, and Mrs. JENSEN made many friends by reason of her kindly and helpful disposition.

The funeral service at the Cemetery chapel on Wednesday was conducted by the Rector (Canon C. HEALD). The mourners were Mr. P. S. JENSEN (husband), Mr. and Mrs. T. LUNDY (son-in-law and daughter), Miss D. JENSON (daughter), the Misses D. and S. JENSEN (step-daughters), Mr. W. H. URRY (brother-in-law, representing Mrs. URRY, sister), and Mrs. A. W. URRY (also representing Mr. A. W. URRY, nephew),. Mr. and Mrs. S. SPENCER (nephew and niece) were prevented from attending, There were many floral tributes.
