ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thursday 12th December 1957

Mr. G. H. JENVEY. – For nearly 40 years a railway ticket-collector at Ryde until his retirement in 1951, Mr. George Harry JENVEY, of 10 Station Street, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. E. C. OVEREND, of 21 Great Preston Close, on Sunday. Aged 71, he was a widower and leaves five sons and two daughters. He had been in ill-health for several months. During service with the Hampshire Regiment, for seven years he served in South Africa from 1903, and in the first world war saw action in France. An excellent shot, he was a musketry instructor. Mr. JENVEY showed great interest in the local Air Training Corps.

The funeral service yesterday at the Cemetery Chapel was conducted by the Methodist Minister, the Rev. Cledwyn WOOD.
