ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Sat 21st May 1960

The Late Mrs. W. A. JOLLIFFE.---The funeral took place at St. John's Church on Tuesday, of Mrs. Winifred Annie JOLLIFFE, of 33 Prince-street, who died on Thursday week after a long illness. She was the mother of Mr. D. W. JOLLIFFE, vice-president of the Island Labour Party who was an unsuccessful candidate in last week's town council elections.

The Vicar (the Rev. A. J. PEARMAN) conducted the service which included the hymns "Blest are the pure in heart" and "Abide with me." The family mourners were Mr. J. W. JOLLIFFE (husband), Mr. D. W. JOLLIFFE (son), Mr. G. A. JOLLIFFE and Mr. R. HARRISON (brothers-in-law). Miss E. FISHER (sister-in-law), was unable to be present. The floral tributes included one from Ryde Labour Party, of which Mr. JOLLIFFE is chairman.
