

FORMER RAILWAYMAN'S DEATH

A well known and much respected inhabitant of Eastfield passed away after a long illness on the 8th inst. in the person of Mr. C. G. KELLEWAY, at the age of 79. He was employed for many years on the railway as a platelayer until his retirement at the age of 70.

The funeral took place on the following Wednesday at Ryde Cemetery, the chief mourners being Mrs. KELLEWAY (widow), Messrs. Charles, Frank, Harry, Fred, Ernest and Albert KELLEWAY (sons), Mrs. W. WRIGHT, Mrs. H. BULLEN, Mrs. E. WELCH (daughters), Messrs. Frank and Fred KELLEWAY (brothers), and deceased's sister Emmie, Mr. W. WRIGHT, Mr. H. BULLEN, and Mr. E. WELCH (sons-in-law), Mrs. H. KELLEWAY, Mrs. Fred KELLEWAY, Mrs. E. KELLEWAY, and Mrs. A. KELLEWAY (daughters-in-law), Mrs. A. YEATES, Mrs. E. LACEY, Mr. and Mrs. F. LACEY (sisters and brothers-in-law), Mrs. W. ATTRILL and Miss D. WRIGHT (grandchildren), Mrs. LEFFLEY (niece), Mr. H. PHILLIPS, Mr. H. WOODWARD and Mr. C. P. VALLENDER (representing the Railway).

The following sent wreaths: His loving wife; son Charles; Emmie and Wally; Frank, Louie and Eileen; Harry and Milly; Fred and Daisy; Clara and Bert; Nelly, Ted and Bobby; Ernie and Doll; Teddy and Annie, brother and sister; Sister Kit; all at Roud Farm; Carrie and Albert (Woolwich); Jessie and Bill (Poole); Mrs. E. LACEY; grandchildren Ena, Dorothy, Kathleen, Phyllis, Eileen, Pearl, and Terry; grandchildren Stanley, Kathleen, and Beryl; grandchildren Charlie, Brian, and little Sheila; his great- grandchildren Mavis and Trevor; Jessie and the Twins; Mr. and Mrs. MILLER; Mr. and Mrs. ORCHARD (Bembridge); Mr. and Mrs. BULLEN; Phil and Charlie (East Cowes); the employees of the Southern Railway; and a few neighbours and friends at the Vectis Steam Laundry.

---